Please Read

Uniquely Chic Vintage is a custom refinishing, restoration, and upholstery company providing unique home furnishings to clientele for complete customization. Items available on our website, Uniquely Chic Vintage, and our Etsy.com shop, Vintage Home Rehab, list pieces individually as available for purchase or not available “AS IS” – because they are more suitable for customization and not ready for immediate use. Items are not usually available “AS IS” for direct purchase due to the extensive nature in which these particular pieces need restoration, refinishing, or repairs.

We strongly encourage our clientele to allow our staff to restore and refinish these items.

If you still wish to purchase any item(s) from our website or Etsy.com shop typically not available “AS IS,” we will allow you to do so, providing you agree to the terms and conditions outlined in this document by signing and submitting it back to Uniquely Chic Vintage/Vintage Home Rehab.

- This waiver states you acknowledge the item(s) are used, imperfect, and generally not in good or fair condition for immediate use.
- You accept the item(s) require additional materials, repair, and other restoration to render the piece(s) suitable for usage.
- You acknowledge purchases of the item(s) are non-refundable. The shipping costs to ship purchases to you are also non-refundable. You will not seek, nor will you be provided, any refund for not available “AS IS” item(s) purchased from Uniquely Chic Vintage or our Etsy.com shop Vintage Home Rehab because you are displeased with the condition of the items received.
